

WEATHER ON THE RANCH

Hi All, As you can see, I am still having some problems (3/29/2014), but hopefully I can fix them. The weather has been quite typical for Springtime in the Rockies. I am posting a few pictures from my driveway camera to give folks a feel for the conditions. Here is a chart of outside temperatures and wind gusts from Jan 01 to Mar 20, 2014 at Panuurd Ln:

Here are a few selected shots from my driveway camera:

These pictures have the dates and times on them and give a pretty good idea of snow conditions since the last update. Springtime continues.

I'll try to update the weather page on the 5th & 20th barring problems with the technology.
