

Weather from 03/20/13 to 04/04/13 at the Ranch

Well, as you can see by the graph below, we've had an interesting couple of weeks here on the Ranch. Daytime highs in the 50's and some lows around -10 degrees. Thankfully, we have also had some very welcome precipitation, about 6" of snow.

Below are a couple of photos from the front deck, the one on the left was taken about 7am on the 3rd of April and the one on the right was taken about 7am on the 4th of April.
